- 1. To learn what a Precinct Committee Officer (PCO) is
- 2. To gain an appreciation of the FCRCC and the role the PCO plays in the party
- 3. To learn the roles, responsibilities and tasks of a PCO
- 4. To learn about the various tools available to the PCO for performing their tasks

Welcome

Congratulations on Your Election or Appointment as a PCO

You are the heart, soul, and strength of the party. Grassroots democracy begins with YOU. You represent the party to your neighbors and community and in turn you are the eyes and ears on the ground for both the County Party and State Party.

Your voter registration efforts and Get Out The Vote drives make the difference in elections. With your active and ongoing help in your precinct we will succeed in electing good conservative candidates to all levels of public office within Franklin County.

This training was prepared for you, the new PCO, by the FCRCC. The course will assist you in your efforts as a PCO. It is intended as a ready reference of value added information.

Remember, You are the most CRITICAL part of the FCRCCs success

Introduction

Mission

The Franklin County Republican Party exists to elect Republicans and to ensure that our conservative values are sustained over time. Our mission is to elect Republicans to every elected office possible (local, county, state & federal).

We achieve this primarily through the efforts of our grassroots Precinct Committee Officers (PCOs) and our Precinct Captains (PCs). PCOs and PCs are both expected to perform the same duties and tasks.

Republicans get elected when PCOs are actively canvassing their precincts, knocking on doors, and making phone calls.

Note: For purposes of this handbook, PCOs and PCs will both be referred to as PCOs.

The county Republican Party is guided by the following Core Values:

- 1. Sanctity of the Constitution - Our nation's founding fathers were guided by a core set of principles when they laid down the framework for the country, and those goals should continue to be upheld
- 2. Self-Defense The nation's future is contingent upon its citizens being able to bear arms to protect themselves from both domestic and foreign threats.
- 3. Equal Justice - Americans deserve to live freely and equally with a single and fair justice system for all.
- 4. Limited Government America functions best when its citizens can govern themselves, with limited influence from the federal government
- 5. Value of the Free Market Competition drives growth and progress for the betterment of all its citizens

Core Values cont.

- 6. Right to Privacy To live freely without influence from the government or media
- 7. Pride In Country Conservatives believe patriotism should be a natural part of each American's life
- 8. Hard Work Each American has an obligation to invest in and contribute to society
- 9. Opposition to Special Interests - Government and its leaders operate independently of pressure from special interest groups

10. Self-Help - Americans have the capacity to lift themselves out of negative situations and should invest in self-improvement instead of relying on government to care for them

Republican Party Structure

PCOs are the Backbone of the Party

The precinct is your neighborhood and the building block of the Franklin county political unit.

- The legislative district works in conjunction with the county party to help elect Republicans to the state legislature.
- The county central committee is made up of all the PCOs in the county and headed chairman and supported by an executive committee.
- The state central committee is made up of every county chair and state committeeman and woman, who are elected by their respective county central committees.
- The Republican National Committee is made up of state chairmen and national committeemen and women who are elected.

- Elections are a numbers game
- Simply put, Republicans only win if they receive more votes than their opponents
- PCOs are required to ensure that the as many Republicans, as possible, in their precinct vote

A precinct is the smallest political unit in the country

The precinct is the most important voting and organizational unit within the Party

The precinct is where elections are won and lost!

What a PCO Does

Why become a PCO

Duties & Authorities

Legal Responsibilities

Expectations

Responsibilities

Job Tasks

Why Become A PCO

- Being a PCO is one of the best ways to be involved in the Republican Party at the local level
- PCOs are the grass roots of the Republican Party
- PCOs are vital to the local party's success. They are the "Boots On the Ground"
- PCOs are on the front line of winning elections up and down the ballot from the School Board to the Senate

Duties & Authorities

- The PCO is the official elected representative of the precinct to the Republican Party
- This is a partisan office established to represent the voters within a specific geographical area
- The PCO's duties and responsibilities are set forth in state law and the WSRP's bylaws.

Legal Responsibilities

Legal Basis for a PCO is specified in RCW 29A.80 Political Parties

- Assist in organizing your County Party by electing officers of the County's Central Committee.
- Serve as a voting member of the County Central Committee.
- Responsible for electing replacements to fill vacancies in other elected partisan offices such as County Commissioner or State Legislators.
- Call and conduct precinct caucus, as directed by the County Chairman.

PCO Eligibility & Elections (RCW 29A.80.041 & RCW 29A.80.051)

- Be a member of the Republican Party.
- Be at least 18 years old.
- Be a registered voter in the precinct.
- File for election in the even numbered years.
- If unopposed, a PCO candidate is automatically elected, if opposed whoever received the most votes in the August Primary will be elected.

Serve a 2 year term starting December 1 following the election.

PCO Appointment (RCW 29A.28.071)

Appointment for open precincts must be made after the county reorganization meeting.

Eligibility: must declare to be a member of a major political party, registered voter in the precinct.

Appointment is made by the County Chair and may require approval of the County Executive Board.

Precinct Captain (WSRP Bylaws)

If the County Chair cannot find a person within a precinct to serve as a PCO, then he or she may appoint a precinct captain. This individual acts as a PCO but does not have to live within the precinct.

Same eligibility and process as a PCO appointment except appointees may live outside the precinct to which he or she is being appointed Captain.

The FCRCC Bylaws describe in detail the legal responsibilities of the PCO.

It is critical for you to be knowledgeable of the bylaws!

Expectations

- PCOs are expected to be active in their Legislative Districts by attending monthly Franklin County Republican Central Committee (FCRCC) meetings, sponsored events, and supporting their local candidates
- PCOs can enhance their effectiveness through other activities such as by attending Washington State Republican Party events, campaign-related fundraisers, and volunteering with local or statewide campaigns in your district
- Active participation is critical in our ability to succeed in our mission

Responsibilities:

The most important day-to-day job is just regularly talking to your neighbors

Ensuring Republicans in your neighborhood return their ballots during election time

Observing elections in your county to ensure free and fair elections

Electing County Party leaders and contributing to the direction of your county party (endorsing candidates, changing the platform, etc)

Educating undecided voters on local, state & national issues of importance

Building community connections in your precinct

20 Learning about and helping endorsed candidate campaigns

Responsibilities cont.

Registering Republican voters

Helping bring new individuals into the party

Serve as the political representative for your precinct

Know your precinct and who is in the precinct (both Republicans & Democrats)

Vote for the FCRCC endorsement of candidates

Vote on FCRCC propositions/recommendations

Determine how the FCRCC spends its money

Recruit and Train Volunteers

Ensure the voices of the voters are heard in local party decisions

Tips for Managing Your Responsibilities

Set up a filing system (electronic and/or paper-based) to organize your materials. Set it up in a way that works best for you and makes information sharing with your local organization seamless and efficient.

Keep a calendar of your canvassing schedule, precinct events, party meetings, and caucus and convention schedules

Set up electronic folders to manage email

Post a map of your precinct for easy reference

Consider setting up a dedicated email address

Consider ordering business cards with contact information, but only include information you are comfortable sharing with the public.

You can always write a note on the back.

Utilize a checklist and map for canvassing.

Who To Call For Help & Support

Contact other PCO's they are available to help answer questions, and/or assist you

Contact any member of the FCRCC Executive Committee if you need assistance (most of them are PCOs)

If you need a voter phone numbers, email addresses or such canvasing tools contact Bob Barmettlor (509) 308-1261 and/or rbbarmettlor@yahoo.com

Job Tasks

Learn About Your Precinct:

Get a copy of your precinct map and precinct voter canvasing list

- Learn the demographics including; boundaries, the number of houses and apartment buildings, religious centers, schools, businesses etc.
- Get to know your neighbors. Meet the Republican/conservatives in your precinct; learn about their interests, problems, and concerns

Be aware of and sensitive to the economic and cultural makeup of your precinct

Keep track of young people who will be 18 years old before Election Day and get them registered to vote

Host a house party, community event, BBQ, candidates' forum, or political video party to bring together voters in your neighborhood (the FCRCC may be able to provide you funds for some activities, you need to ask)

Learn about the major concerns of the state, county, and your precinct. Know what the controversial issues are in your community and how the majority of people in your precinct feel about them

It's important to let Republicans in your precinct know who you are and that you're there to help them

Job Tasks cont.

Identify Current and Likely Republicans in Your Precinct:

The best way to accomplish this is by canvasing your precinct

Canvassing can be accomplished through either knocking on every door or calling every registered voter in the precinct

The best way to canvas is to walk your precinct and knock on doors!

In rural precincts it may also be effective to do some phone canvasing

Canvassing must be done on a routine basis. It cannot solely be done in the last few weeks (e.g. GOTV campaign) leading up to Election Day

The best times for door to door canvasing:

- Monday through Thursday 3:30 pm to dark
- Saturday 11:00 am to 6:00 pm
- Sunday 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Job Tasks cont.

Door to Door Canvasing Tips:

Approach every door confidently

After knocking or ringing the doorbell, stand back a few feet so you are respecting their personal space

Maintain good eye contact and open body language

Assume they support the conservative platform

You have a lot of people to talk to, so focus on short, effective conversations

Don't waste time debating with non-supporters, it's pointless!!

Conversations where the voter does most of the talking (and you listen) can actually change people's minds

In households with more than one voter, if one person votes, usually all do

- If the residents aren't home, leave any literature at their front door, somewhere it will be visible and won't blow away (e.g. sticking out from under the doormat, or folded in the door handle)
- Do NOT leave literature in or on the mailbox, or even under the little 'flag' alerting postal carriers to pick up letters, it is against the law!

If the yard is fenced, the driveway gated, or there's a menacing dog, skip the house and phone them instead

Apartment buildings may be locked or inaccessible. Try to find a helpful resident to let you in or appoint a volunteer who lives in the building to contact residents.

Example Canvasing Script

"Hi! I'm Bob Barmettlor, your neighbor over on West Maple Dr. I'm the Republican Committee Person for our precinct. I just wanted to introduce myself and give you my contact information. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about our Republican candidates and elections. By the way, is there anyone in the household who needs to register to vote or change their registration status? I have some registration forms if you need them!"

Notes:

- Be sure to pass on any campaign related materials at this time
- If no one is home, leave your materials with a note saying "how sorry you were to have missed them

Conducting the Get Out The Vote (GOTV) Campaign:

Direct Voter Contact is the proven and most effective way to get out the vote. Direct contact is achieved through door-to-door contact and phone calls. It is not achieved through indirect voter contact such as sign waving or literature dropping.

PCOs are highly encouraged to door knock rather then phone call their precinct. Knocking on a door is much more effective at turning out voters than phone calls.

The GOTV campaign makes or breaks elections! A few extra Republicans voting will swing many elections.

Job Tasks cont.

Canvasing Do's & Don'ts:

Be friendly

Be brief and be a good listener

Have all the answers available, either in your head or in your literature

If you don't have the answer, be honest about it and promise to get back. That also opens the door to a follow up call or visit

Do leave appropriate literature if possible

Do leave the names and contact information of local leaders in the Republican Party

Don't raise controversial issues

Don't argue or antagonize it wastes time

Don't make disparaging remarks about Democratic Party organizations or office holders

31 Don't make any claims about opposition candidates which cannot be proven

Canvasing with a partner is always more fun and safer

Find volunteers to help canvas

Be sure to keep a good pace

Don't waste time, but if you feel that you can swing them, keep the conversation going

Keep a positive attitude!

Make sure your cell phone is charged

If you cannot answer a question, don't B.S. them (follow-up)

Be sure to take along snacks & water

Have fun and don't get frustrated!

Have appropriate body language

Show confidence and respect

Have a conversation (don't read from a script)

Practice your opening and adapt what works for you personally

Don't say anything that could be construed as racist, sexist or discriminatory

No defamatory language

No name calling or personal attacks

Have a good knowledge of the local community & party issues

33 Don't reference bad sources of information

Job Tasks cont.

Canvasing is Proven to be Effective:

34

Contacted voters are more likely to vote with each interaction

- All household members, even those not spoken to, are more likely to vote
- Localized messages and personal connections are very important
- Is the most effective means for a campaign to contact voters with their message

Refreshed data helps the party and campaigns better target voters and makes best use of time and resources

A Very Nice Canvasing Side Benefit!

While canvasing you might find a potential volunteer that wants get more involved. Here is what you should do:

- Schedule a 1 on 1 meeting
- Tell your story, teach them to tell their story
- Tell them about the FCRCC
- Ask to join our team and help have a positive impact

Job Tasks cont.

A Typical Doorstep Conversation:

Introduce yourself and Say What Organization/Campaign You Are With

Immediately Begin your Story and why You Support a Certain Candidate

Hand Them any Campaign Material

If They are Willing to Talk - Listen To Them!

Find Common Ground with the Voter

Remind Them of the Election Dates and Ask them to Spread the Word

After introduction, roughly 50% of the voters will not want to talk

- If they don't immediately want to talk, be understanding of their reasons, but at least hand them any material you may want them to have, then reiterate that you support that platform/candidate, then ask them if they support local Republican candidates
- Most conversations will only last a minute or two. Try and make sure the experience is positive
- If the person is open to talking, make sure you listen to what they are saying and make sure you are finding common ground (takes practice)
- No matter the result of the conversation, be sure to record the information about the contact (this data needs be collected by the FCRCC & state party!)

Job Tasks cont.

Common Questions Voters Ask:

How do I find out if I'm registered to vote?

How do I register to vote?

Where do I register to vote?

What is my precinct number?

When is the primary?

What do I have to do to vote in the primary?

Can independents vote in the primary?

When is the general election?

Job Tasks cont.

Common Questions Voters Ask cont.

Can anyone vote?

What does the Republican Party stand for?

Who are the candidates?

What are their qualifications or positions?

What can I do to help?

Are there any Republican/conservative organizations around? How do I join?

Where can I get bumper stickers, buttons, campaign literature, etc?

Who is the County party Chair?

Who's in charge of the precinct?

Job Tasks cont.

Recruit and Train Volunteers:

When you talk with your neighbors, tell them how much you enjoy your involvement in Republican Party politics

See if they would be interested in doing volunteer work or becoming otherwise involved

Report all interested people to the FCRCC as soon as practical

Provide them with information on how to get in contact with the party (website etc.)

Invite them to the next monthly FCRCC meeting

PCO Job Tasks cont. Be Active In the Community and the Party:

There is always something for a PCO to do in their Precinct!

Most importantly, be out there in front of voters to promote Republican candidates and party ideals, and to be a resource for your neighbors.

Here are some ways you can do that:

- Be visible during campaign season.
- Distribute Party and candidate literature, display yard/window signs and assist with gathering signatures for petitions
- Get to know Party officers and elected officials
- Get acquainted with your FCRCC chair, Executive Committee members and other county PCOs
- Keep up to date on party activities

Here are some ways you can do that cont.

Support activities of city, county and state organizations

Know the Republican candidates running in upcoming elections

Attend FCRCC events and activities. Encourage others to participate as well

Host your own Party events and invite your neighbors. Include not just Republicans but voters who lean conservative and even others who might be persuadable

Your challenge - Are you up to the task?

Seriously ponder these two questions:

Is getting out in your precinct and talking to people your cup of tea?

Are you willing to devote enough of your time & effort to be an effective PCO?

Advantage Application - A Very Helpful Tool

The primary benefit for using an app is that it eliminates the use of paper. All your canvasing data collection can be performed on your phone or tablet

Advantage app links directly to the Washington State Republican party database

Washington State Republican party database is part of a larger national Republican database (GOP Data Center)

Historically the FCRCC has not used the app very much

Bob Barmettlor is the Point of Contact for obtaining Advantage credentials

Benefits of the Advantage Software

- Battle tested, used in all 50 states in 2020 and contracted with 40 state parties
- Exclusive Canvasing system for the Trump campaign in 2016 and 2020
- The only RNC approved app operating in Washington state
- Syncs directly with GOP Data Center, allowing for seamless targeting for local and federal candidates
- Support system, WSRP staff are fully trained to handle troubleshooting and tech issues

Basic Steps To Using Advantage

Apply for Credentials (allows for access into the application)

Installing the Software Application on Your Device (computer, laptop, phone)

Logging into Your Advantage Account

Selecting precinct Walkbooks you created

Using list & Map Views

Inputting the new & updated data you gathered from your canvasing activity

Sync Collected Data to State GOP Data Center

There are other apps you can use besides Advantage

Another tool growing in popularity is Campaign Sidekick

This Sidekick works in a similar manner as Advantage

Working Without an App - No Problem!

- The FCRCC will provide you with Excel Spreadsheets containing voter information
- Just contact Bob Barmettlor to get the spreadsheet for your precinct
- Once you have the electronic file you can manipulate & sort it as desired

Bob can also provide you with a wide variety of customized spreadsheets

Using the Spreadsheet Precinct Data

If you are not familiar with Excel, a Word version of the data can be provided to you

Use the data and a precinct map to determine the best was to divide your precinct for canvasing activities

Perform the canvasing activity (note this will take multiple days)

After each contact take notes regarding the experience

Keep the notes simple (republican yes/no/unclear, contacted yes/no, etc.)

Transfer your notes to your electronic file (make the updates clear to the viewer)

Provide a copy of the updated electronic files to Bob Barmettlor (he will take hand written copies as a last resort)

Remember the data in the spreadsheet is likely to be somewhat dated. Communities are dynamic and always changing. Remember the data is only good as the last time it was updated by the PCO.

That is why, when you are going door to door canvasing, to always markup the spreadsheet with corrected data

The updated information you collected needs to be provided to Bob Barmettlor so he can update the GOP Data Center database

Learned what a PCO is

- Gained an appreciation of the FCRCC and the role the PCO plays in the county party
- Learned the roles, responsibilities and tasks of a PCO

Learned about the two primary tools the PCO needs

Now it is up to you to go out and make the magic happen! Good Luck!
